

Josie Gould Memorial Scholarship 2017 Application

Who Can Apply

- Scholarships will be open to UNW members (in good standing as of June 30, 2017); current, retired and deceased members' spouses, and relatives whose permanent place of residence is Canada, and who have been accepted for full time post secondary study.
- The definition of a relative is: a spouse of same or opposite sex, parent, child, including a step-child or foster child, or grandchild.
- No applicant will be awarded a scholarship in two (2) consecutive years.

How to Apply

APPLICATION FORM

- Fill out the attached application form. Any missing information may disqualify you from the competition.

ESSAY

- With the application, you must submit a double spaced, typed, three (3) page essay in Word or PDF format. No handwritten essays will be accepted.
- Please put a cover page on your essay, with your name, essay title, and date. Do not put your name on any other pages of the essay.
- The following is the topic for your essay:

How and why are unions important in today's society?

- In combination with your research, the committee will be looking for creativity such as personal experiences, discussions and/or interviews with others. If outside sources are used, then a list of resources and personal interviews, written and web based, must be included or the essay will not be accepted. Citations must be included in the body of the essay and the corresponding references included in the lists of resources. The list of resources should be on a separate page and does not count towards the three (3) page limit.

- Please attach to your application a head and shoulders photograph of yourself. The only purpose for this photograph is for use on our website or in advertising, of successful candidates only.
