- (e) Absence due to lay-off for a period equal to the employee's seniority if the seniority of that employee is less than twelve (12) months;
- (f) Absence due to lay-off for a period in excess of twelve (12) consecutive months if the employee's seniority is one (1) year or greater.

For purposes of subclauses (e) and (f) above, a recall of less than ten (10) consecutive working days shall not be deemed to interrupt an absence due to lay-off.

15.04 Only those employees who have achieved permanent full-time and permanent part-time employee status, are entitled to claim the rights and benefits arising out of seniority. Permanent part-time employees are eligible for these benefits on a pro-rata basis.

15.05 The Employer shall maintain a seniority list containing the following information:

- (a) Employee's Name
- (b) Date from which the employee's seniority is calculated.
- (c) Employee's current job title and level.

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each employee's service commenced. A copy of the seniority list shall be posted on all bulletin boards and sent to the Union and shall be kept up-to-date by the Employer. Any objection to the accuracy of a posted seniority list must be lodged with the Employer in writing during the fifteen days in which the list is posted. Thereafter, the posted list will be deemed to be valid and correct for all purposes.

15.06 An employee transferred or promoted to a position which is excluded from the bargaining unit shall, in the event of the employee's subsequent return to the bargaining unit, be reinstated on the seniority list as if the employee had remained in the bargaining unit.

15.07 When two (2) or more employees are hired by the Employer on the same calendar date and when mutual agreement cannot be reached among the Employer, the Union, and the employees in question, then seniority shall be determined by chance - i.e., by flip of the coin.

ARTICLE 16 -
Appointments, Promotions and Transfers

- 16.01 Where the Employer determines that a permanent vacancy exists in a classification to which this agreement applies, it will give present employees every reasonable opportunity to apply by posting a bulletin giving pertinent details of the position and inviting interested and qualified employees to apply for the position. The notice shall be posted on all bulletin boards for a minimum of five (5) calendar days. The Employer is not required to consider applications submitted after the posting period has expired.
- 16.02 Appointments to posted positions shall be made on the basis of qualifications, performance, ability and experience. When two (2) or more candidates satisfy the aforesaid requirements seniority shall govern.
- 16.03 The name of the successful candidate shall be provided to the Union and all unsuccessful bargaining unit candidates upon the completion of the selection process.

Unsuccessful candidates shall have five (5) working days from the date of notification to initiate a grievance on the selection at the Second Level of the grievance procedure.

Trial Period

- 16.04 Any permanent bargaining unit employee selected to fill a vacancy or a new job shall be on a trial period for twenty (20) working days. During this trial period, the employee must demonstrate that they can satisfy the requirements of the job, to the satisfaction of the Employer.

Any probationary bargaining unit employee selected to fill a vacancy or a new job shall be on a probationary period for four (4) months in the new position. During this probationary period, the employee must demonstrate that the employee can satisfy the requirements of the job, to the satisfaction of the Employer.

- 16.05 Should the employee be unable to satisfy the requirements of the job, or should the employee decide that they do not want to continue in the job at any time during the trial period, then the employee shall be returned to their former job at the wage rate the employee previously earned in the former job, plus any increments to which the employee would have otherwise been entitled had the employee not been promoted. The Employer shall have the right to require all other employees who changed job positions to move back into the job positions and salary scales (plus any applicable increments) which they occupied previously.

Pay on Promotion

- 16.06 When an employee is promoted, the employee shall receive:
- (a) the minimum rate of pay for the new group where the employee's rate of pay prior to promotion is less than the minimum rate of pay for the new group: or

- (b) the rate of pay for the new group which is closest to, but not less than, the employee's rate of pay prior to promotion where the employee's rate of pay prior to promotion is more than the minimum rate of pay for that group.

Vacancies During Recruiting And Temporary Job Vacancies

- 16.07 During the selection process and for temporary job vacancies, the Employer may fill job vacancies by reassigning or transferring employees, recalling employees from lay-off, or engaging casual employees. Temporary job vacancies shall mean vacancies resulting from injury, sickness and/or illness, vacations or leaves of absence.
- 16.08 Where an employee is temporarily appointed to a position outside of the bargaining unit, the employee will not thereby forfeit their status, rights and entitlements under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 17 -
Classification

- 17.01 Any new classification plan shall not be implemented except with the Union's agreement.
- 17.02 Upon written request, an employee shall be entitled to a complete and current Statement of Duties and Responsibilities of the employee's position, including the position's classification level and point rating allotted by factor in accordance with the Hay Job Evaluation Plan, where applicable, and the reasoning for any adjustments (e.g. market adjustments) to the point rating.
- 17.03 When an employee occupies a position in a classification which is reclassified, resulting in its inclusion in a group having a higher maximum rate of pay, the employee shall receive:
 - (a) the minimum rate of pay for the new group where the employee's present rate of pay is less than the minimum rate of pay for that group; or
 - (b) the rate of pay for the new group which is closest to, but not less than, the employee's present rate of pay where the employee's present rate of pay is more than the minimum rate of pay for that group.
- 17.04 Where an employee occupies a position in a classification which is reclassified resulting in its inclusion in a group having a lower maximum rate of pay, the employee shall be 'salary protected' and shall continue to receive all economic increases.
- 17.05 Any disagreement arising from the application of this Article may be grieved in accordance with ARTICLE 14 -. Prior to filing a grievance under Article 14, an employee and the Union may discuss any disagreement under this Article with the Senior Administrative Officer.

New Classifications

- 17.06 (a) Rates of pay for new classification, which come within the scope of this Agreement and are created during the term of this Agreement shall be negotiated with the Union. However, if a satisfactory conclusion to negotiations has not been reached within ten (10) working days of the date of notice by the Employer to the Union of the creation of said classification, any vacancy in this classification can be bulletined according to the rate of pay set out by the Employer.
- (b) In the event that said vacancy is bulletined prior to satisfactory conclusion of negotiations, the rate of pay for the classification of the position shall still be a matter of negotiation and in the event that the parties agree to a rate which differs from the rate originally proposed by the Employer, the new rate shall be retroactive to the date of appointment of any employee to the new position. If agreement cannot be reacclahed within two (2) months of the commencement of negotiations for this purpose, either party may remit this matter to arbitration, pursuant to Article 14.

ARTICLE 18 -
Employee Performance Review and Employee Files

- 18.01 When a formal assessment of an employee's performance is made, the employee concerned must be given an opportunity to sign the assessment form in question upon its completion to indicate that its contents have been read. The employee shall also be given the opportunity to provide written comments to be attached to the employee's performance appraisal. A copy of the assessment form shall be provided to the employee. An employee shall be given the chance to discuss the performance appraisal with the appropriate management representative and the employee's immediate supervisor.
- 18.02 The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing any document from the file of an employee relating to disciplinary action, the existence of which the employee was not aware of at the time of filing or within a reasonable period thereafter.
- 18.03 Any document or written statement related to disciplinary action, which may have been placed on the Personnel file of an employee, shall be destroyed after two (2) years have elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken provided that no further disciplinary action has been recorded during this period.
- 18.04 The appropriate management representative shall assess an employee's performance with the assistance of the employee's immediate supervisor and must have supervised the employee's performance for at least one-half (½) of the period for which the employee's performance is evaluated. In the event that the appropriate management representative and the employee's immediate supervisor have not supervised the employee's performance for one-half (½) of the period, an Employer's representative in the best position to make the evaluation shall do so.

- 18.05 Upon written request of an employee, the Employer shall make that employee's personnel file available for the employee's examination at reasonable times in the presence of an authorized representative of the Employer.

ARTICLE 19 -
Job Security, Lay-Off and Recall to Service

- 19.01 The Employer shall take all reasonable steps to provide continued employment of a suitable nature to a permanent employee whose position has become redundant as a result of technological change, discontinuance of a function or other action initiated by the Employer.
- 19.02 (a) The Employer shall give all reasonable consideration to continued employment with the Employer of permanent employees who would otherwise become redundant because work is contracted out.
- (b) The Employer shall consult with the Union concerning its plans to contract out work that would result in the loss of employment for bargaining unit employees.
- (c) In the event that an employee's position becomes redundant through contracting out and if through the provisions of (a) and (b) hereof a new position cannot be found, the employee so displaced shall receive two (2) months notice or two (2) months pay in lieu of notice at the employee's current rate. If that employee elects to initiate the bumping process contemplated by Article 19.05, the most junior employee who is bumped shall instead be given two (2) months notice or two (2) months pay in lieu of notice at the employee's then current rate.
- 19.03 In relation to the question of "reasonableness" for the administration of Articles 19.01 and 19.02, the Employer is entitled to include in its considerations the availability of funding, the availability of job vacancies, and the qualifications and abilities of the affected employees.
- 19.04 When a lay-off of permanent employees is necessary within a given job classification, the employee in the job classification with the least seniority will be the first employee subject to lay-off.
- 19.05 (a) A permanent employee subject to lay-off under Article 19.04 or an employee who is bumped under this clause, may apply to displace a more junior remaining employee in the same or lower classification within two (2) working days of the employee's receipt of written notice of lay-off or bumping, providing the employee has the necessary qualifications, skill and ability to do the job and has greater seniority than the employee they wish to bump.
- (b) An employee may refuse to exercise the foregoing right without prejudicing their seniority rights in Article 15.03(e) and (f). Once the employee has made their choice, the employee cannot later change their mind relative to that lay-off.

- 19.06 If an employee bumps into a lower wage group, the employee shall be paid at the rate of pay in the lower group not less than the employee's existing rate of pay and not greater than the maximum rate of pay for the lower wage group.
- 19.07 Where a function is to be discontinued and a permanent employee is to be laid off, the employee shall be given two (2) weeks notice in writing, or two (2) weeks pay at the employee's regular rate of pay, in lieu of notice; plus an additional one (1) week's notice, or one (1) week's pay at the employee's regular rate of pay, in lieu of notice for each complete year of the employee's employment over two (2) years, to a maximum of eight (8) weeks.
- 19.08 Where a permanent employee has been laid off, the employee shall be placed on a lay-off list for the period specified in Article 15.03(e) and (f), and given preference for recall in any job classification for which the employee has the required qualifications, skill and ability.
- 19.09 The Employer shall recall permanent employees to a given classification in order of the seniority of the employees within that classification, provided that the employees still retain seniority pursuant to Article 15.03(e) and (f) at the time of the call-back.
- 19.10 A laid-off permanent employee who wishes to be considered for recall must ensure that the Employer is made aware of where they can be contacted if the employee is not going to be available during any seventy-two (72) hour period Monday through Friday, at the address and phone number which is on file with the Employer. Notice of recall will be made to the employee by telephone, registered mail or by direct personal contact. Employees will be given seventy-two (72) hours from the time that contact was made or the alternative notice was transmitted by the Employer, in which to acknowledge receipt of the notice and indicate acceptance of the recall. Thereafter, the Employer may offer the recall to another eligible employee. The refusal of an employee to accept recall to such employment will not result in termination of seniority and will not prejudice the employee's right to another recall.
- 19.11 Permanent employees who have accepted a recall must report on the agreed date unless they are unable to do so for reasonable grounds.

Benefit Coverage

- 19.12 Benefit coverage for employees under the collective agreement ceases on the last day of the calendar month in which the lay-off occurs. None of the other provisions of this agreement which provide payment for time not actually at work (such as bereavement leave, sick leave, statutory holiday pay, vacations, etc.) apply to employees on lay-off.
- 19.13 Unless no laid off employee is qualified to perform the work, new employees shall not be hired until those laid off have been given the opportunity of recall.

 - (b) on a daily basis work eight (8) hours per day.
- 20.05 (a) Employees shall have a lunch period of one (1) hour duration as close to the mid-point of the work day as possible.
- (b) Employees who are unable to leave the workplace for a meal break shall be allowed a one-half (½) hour meal period on paid time during which time they shall continue all necessary supervision of machinery and maintenance of services.

- 20.08 There shall be no split shifts.
- 20.09 An employee who works on a rotating or irregular basis who is required to change their scheduled shift without receiving at least forty-eight (48) hours' notice in advance of the starting time of such change in their scheduled shift shall be paid for the first (1st) shift worked on the revised schedule at the rate of time and one-half (1 1/2) for the first (1st) eight (8) hours and double (2) time thereafter. Subsequent shifts worked on the revised schedule shall be paid for at straight-time rate, subject to Article 21, Overtime.

ARTICLE 21 -

Where the scheduling of the work is within the control of the Employer, employees who are required to work overtime shall be given reasonable advance notice. An employee may, for cause, refuse to work overtime, providing the employee places the refusal in writing.

- 21.04 Overtime work will be compensated by payment not later than the pay period following the pay period in which it was earned.
- 21.05 If an employee is required to work three (3) or more hours of overtime immediately before or following the employee's standard hours of work, and because of operational requirements the employee is not permitted to leave the employee's place of work, the employee shall be supplied a meal by the Employer.
- 21.06 Employees may accumulate up to forty (40) hours of banked time in lieu of payment of overtime. All overtime in excess of forty (40) hours banked will be paid to the employee on their next regular pay. Time off in lieu of payment of overtime shall be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the employer and the employee. Time off in lieu of overtime must be approved by the Senior Administrative Officer or their designate and must be supported by the appropriate leave form. Time off in lieu of overtime payment may be taken in conjunction with annual leave.

ARTICLE 22 -

- 22.01 Employees are entitled to be paid for services rendered at the straight time rate of pay specified in Appendix "B", for the classification of the position to which they are appointed.
- 22.02 Employees shall be paid on a bi-weekly basis with pay days being every second Friday. In the event that a pay-day Friday is a paid Statutory Holiday subject to Article 23.01, then the pay day will be the day before the Statutory Holiday.

The employee required to act in a higher classification shall be paid a flat rate of three dollars ($3.00) per hour for all hours worked in the shift including overtime hours as an acting wage in addition to their regular wage. Overtime factors are not applied to the acting premium. Employees acting in a position not in the bargaining unit shall retain their rights to overtime entitlements.
- (b) When an employee is required by the Employer to perform the duties of a lower classification level on an acting basis, the employee's rate of pay shall not be reduced.
- 22.05 Every employee who is called out by their supervisor or the Senior Administrative Officer (and not merely working extended hours) and required to attend work in an emergency outside the employee's regular working hours shall be paid the greater of:

This minimum one hour payment applies only once during each 60-minute period.

- (b) An employee who receives pay under 22.06(a) shall not receive call-out pay under Article 22.05.
 - (c) An employee who receives standby pay under Article 22.06 shall not be entitled to pay under 22.06(a).
- 22.07 Where the Employer requires an employee to be available on stand-by during off-duty hours, the employee shall be entitled to a stand-by payment of one (1) hour's pay for each eight (8) hours or portion thereof on standby unless that employee is unable or unwilling to report for duty when required during that standby period.

Overtime factors are not applied to the shift premium.

If a performance appraisal has not been completed, the Employee shall be granted a salary increment until the Employee reaches the maximum step in the range for the Employee's position.

- (b) Salary increments granted to an employee each year shall be effective on the employee's anniversary date of their current appointment, until the maximum in the range of rates has been reached.

22.11 When an employee is on a leave of absence without pay, the employee is not entitled to any pay, allowances or benefits.

Holidays Falling on a Day of Rest

23.03 When a Designated Paid Holiday under Article 23.01 coincides with an employee's day of rest, the Designated Paid Holiday shall be moved to the employee's first working day following the employee's day of rest.

23.04 When a Designated Paid Holiday for an employee is moved to another day under the provisions of Article 23.03:

Holiday Coinciding with Day of Paid Leave

23.06 Where a Designated Paid Holiday for an employee falls within a period of leave with pay, the Designated Paid Holiday shall not count as a day of leave.

ARTICLE 24 -
Vacations

Accumulation of Vacation Leave

- 24.01 (a) For each calendar month in which a permanent employee receives at least ten (10) days' pay the employee shall earn vacation leave at the following rates:
- (i) One and one-quarter ($1\frac{1}{4}$) days per calendar month, if the employee has completed less than five (5) years of continuous employment (15 days).
 - (ii) One and two-thirds ($1\frac{2}{3}$) days per calendar month upon completion of five (5) years and less than ten (10) years of continuous employment (20 days).
 - (iii) Two and one-twelfth ($2\frac{1}{12}$) days per calendar month upon completion of ten (10) years and less than fifteen (15) years of continuous employment (25 days).
 - (iv) Two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) days per calendar month upon completion of fifteen (15) years and less than twenty (20) years of continuous employment (30 days).
 - (v) Two and eleven-twelfths ($2\frac{11}{12}$) days per calendar month upon completion of twenty (20) years of continuous employment (35 days).
- (b) By January 31st of each year, each employee's vacation record shall be credited with the anticipated annual vacation credits to be earned in that year. As an employee utilizes their vacation leave entitlement, it shall be deducted from the employee's vacation credits. In the event that the employee's employment is terminated, except by reason of death, and the employee has used more vacation credits than the employee has earned, then the unearned vacation represents a debt owing by the employee to the Employer. The Employer is entitled to deduct the debt from any monies owing to the employee at the time of the termination of employment.
- (c) Vacation requests must be submitted, in writing, before March 1st of each year, for any vacation leave starting between April 1st of that year and March 31st in the following year. Vacation requests submitted before March 1st, will be responded to by the Employer by March 15th.

- (d) Subject to the provisions of this ARTICLE 24 -, the Employer will then have regard for the preferences indicated by the employees in approving annual vacation schedules. The Employer will post the confirmed vacation schedules by mid-March.
 - (e) Where vacation preferences are not submitted before March 1st, or where approved vacation is changed at the employee's request on or after March 1st, the Employer shall determine vacation requests on a first come, first serve basis and the requirements of Article 24.03 (a) and (c) shall not apply. Such vacation requests should be made with at least 10 working days advance notice. Such vacation leave requests shall not be granted for leave beyond March 31st of the following year.
- 24.02 Permanent employees shall not receive vacation leave with pay prior to four (4) months of employment. Vacation leave entitlements will be based on the employee's personal anniversary date, and on the entitlement earned up to the time of the vacation leave applied for.
- 24.03 (a) Subject to operational requirements, the Employer shall make every effort to grant vacation leave of up to three (3) consecutive weeks to permanent employees in accordance with the dates submitted by them to the Senior Administrative Officer or their designate.
- (b) The employee may be granted up to forty (40) hours of accumulated time banked in lieu of payment of overtime consecutive with vacation leave.
- (c) Where two or more employees apply for the same vacation leave and the Employer's operational requirements permit approval of only one such leave during the period in question, the leave shall be granted to the more senior employee.
- 24.04 A permanent employee shall receive the vacation leave to which the employee is entitled as leave at the straight-time rate of pay for the position to which the employee is permanently appointed. However, an employee acting in a higher level position shall receive vacation leave with pay at the acting rate provided the employee resumes the duties on an acting basis following the period of vacation leave.
- 24.05 Where the Employer has proposed to change, reduce or deny the vacation leave requested by the employee, the Employer shall provide the employee with the reasons, in writing, for such change, reduction or denial of vacation leave.
- 24.06 Where, in respect of any period of vacation leave, an employee:
- (a) is granted special leave, when there is a death in the employee's immediate family, as described in Article 26.01;
 - (b) is granted special leave with pay because of illness in the family as described in Article 26.02(a)(i);
 - (c) is granted sick leave on production of a medical certificate;

the period of vacation leave so displaced shall either be added to vacation period, if requested by the employee and approved by the Employer, or reinstated for use at a later date.

Carry-over Provision

24.07 An employee is only permitted to carry-over the vacation leave credits which the employee has earned in that vacation year to the following vacation year, except where the Employer has not granted the vacation leave requested by the employee. Annual leave credits which have been carried over and which exceed one (1) year entitlement will be liquidated in cash at the end of that subsequent vacation year.

Recall from Vacation Leave

24.08 The Employer shall make every reasonable effort not to recall an employee to duty after the employee has proceeded on vacation leave. However, when during any period of vacation leave, an employee is recalled to duty, the employee shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses, as normally defined by the Employer, that the employee incurs:

- (a) in proceeding to their place of duty;
- (b) in respect of any non-refundable deposits or pre-arrangements associated with the employee's vacation; and
- (c) in returning to the place from which the employee was recalled if the employee immediately resumes vacation upon completing the assignment for which the employee was recalled;

after submitting such accounts as are normally required by the Employer.

24.09 The employee shall not be considered as being on vacation leave during any period in respect of which the employee is entitled under Article 24.08 to be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred by the employee.

24.10 When the Employer cancels or alters a period of vacation leave for a permanent employee, which has previously been approved in writing, the Employer shall reimburse the employee for the non-returnable deposits on reservations made by the employee in respect of such leave, subject to the presentation of such documentation as the Employer may require. The employee shall make every reasonable attempt to mitigate any possible losses and shall provide proof of such action to the Employer.

24.11 (a) Casual and Term employees shall receive vacation pay at a rate of five (5%) percent of their gross earnings each pay period. Casual employees shall receive vacation pay at the rate of six percent (6%) after completing five years of employment.

(b) Probationary employees shall not be entitled to proceed on vacation during their period of probation, but during their period of probation shall accumulate vacation credits at the same rate as non-probationary employees.

24.12 Subject to Article 24.01, an employee shall not accrue vacation leave credits during an unpaid leave of absence.

24.13 Where a permanent or probationary employee dies or otherwise terminates their employment after a period of continuous employment the employee or the employee's estate shall, in lieu of earned but unused vacation leave, be paid an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of days of earned but unused vacation leave by the daily rate of pay applicable to the employee's permanent position immediately prior to the termination of the employee's employment.

The Employer shall grant the employee any vacation leave earned but not used by the employee before the employment is terminated by lay-off if the employee so requests because of a requirement to meet the minimum service requirements for severance pay.

Vacation Travel Time

24.14 Each permanent employee shall receive two (2) days leave with pay once each vacation year for the purpose of travel when taking their annual vacation, provided the employee liquidates at least five (5) days of vacation leave. These travel days are not to be accumulated from year to year unless the employee is prohibited, by the Employer, from taking their vacation in any fiscal year.

ARTICLE 25 - Sick Leave

25.01 The principle of sick leave is to provide financial support when a regular employee is unable to earn their wages due to injury, sickness and/or illness. Sick leave shall not be considered or used as time off for any reason other than injury, sickness and/or illness.

25.02 Employees shall earn sick leave credits at the rate of one and one-quarter (1¼) days per month in which the employee has received pay for at least ten (10) days.

25.03 Sick leave earned pursuant to Article 25.02 and not used by an employee shall be accumulated from year to year, to a maximum of one hundred and twenty (120) days.

25.04 Sick leave payments or credits shall not be given to employees during leaves of absence, lay-offs, disciplinary suspensions, days on which the employee is otherwise paid by the Employer, maternity or child care leave, or during strikes or lockouts.

25.05 Casual employees are not eligible for sick leave pay or sick leave credits.

Employee to Inform Employer

25.06 The employee shall inform the Senior Administrative Officer or their designate as soon as possible of the employee's inability to report to work because of injury, illness and/or sickness.

25.07 (a) Unless otherwise informed by the Employer, a statement signed by an employee, describing that because of injury, sickness and/or illness the employee was unable to perform their duties, shall be considered as meeting the Employer's requirements, provided that the period of the absence does not exceed three (3) days.

- (b) An employee must provide a medical certificate in the following situations:

- (c) Failure to furnish a medical certificate upon request may void the employee's claim for benefits and may, in addition, result in disciplinary penalties.

25.08 Sick leave payments or credits shall be given to employees during annual vacation leave only if the employee submits a medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner certifying that such employee is unable to carry out their duties due to injury, sickness and/or illness, and the actual dates during which the employee was injured, sick and/or ill. Such certificate must be submitted to the Employer within three (3) days of the employee's return to work from the employee's vacation.

25.09 (a) In a case where a permanent employee has insufficient or no sick leave credit to cover the granting of sick leave with pay, at the discretion of the Employer, the employee may be granted sick leave credits in advance to a maximum of fifteen (15) days, which shall be charged against future credits earned.

(b) In the event that an employee is granted advance sick leave credits and then the employee's employment is terminated for any reason before the employee earns and pays back their sick leave advance, or any portion of it, then the outstanding amount of the advanced sick leave represents a debt owing by the employee to the Employer. The Employer is entitled to deduct the debt from any monies owing to the employee at the time of the termination of employment.

(c) Sick leave advances will not be granted to probationary employees.

25.10 In circumstances where an employee is entitled to receive benefits from any other source as a result of their injury, sickness and/or illness, the employee is entitled to draw on their accrued sick leave benefits only to the extent required to ensure that the total amount of the benefit received from all sources equals eighty percent (80%) of the employee's regular rate of pay.

25.11 Employees who are eligible to apply for Short Term Disability or Long-Term Disability shall apply for such benefits as soon as they are eligible.

25.12 Employees shall be entitled to use one (1) day of sick leave per calendar year, which may be granted on short notice, to promote wellness and maintain a good physical and mental health. Such leave may not be combined with any other type of leave. Such leave shall not be unreasonably denied.

(hereinafter called the "Employer")

- and -

THE UNION OF NORTHERN WORKERS
(hereinafter called the "Union")

BY-LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER - PROVISIONS FOR COMPENSATORY LEAVE AND FLEXIBLE HOURS OF WORK

The Parties recognize that the nature of the position of By-Law Officer requires flexibility in the scheduling of hours of work in order to perform the duties of the position and agree as follows:

1) Definitions

The following definitions shall apply:

- (a) "By-Law Officer" means the employee of the Employer, employed in the position of By-Law Enforcement Officer appointed as a By-Law Officer within the meaning of the Cities, Towns & Villages Act, R.S.N.W.T. 1988, c. C-8, as amended;
- (b) "Collective Agreement" means the agreement entered into between the Employer and the Union;
- (c) "Job Description" means the position description for the By-Law Enforcement Officer established by the Employer.

2) Hours of Work

In order to meet the operational requirements of By-Law Enforcement, By-Law Officers may not always be able to work the normal work week of five (5) work days followed by two (2) days of rest, or a normal work day of 7.5 hours, and may sometimes work in excess of five (5) consecutive days in one week, or 7.5 hours in one day.

Because of this By-Law Officers are allowed flexibility:

- a) in scheduling their work week on an irregular basis;
- b) in scheduling their work day on an irregular basis.

3) Compensatory Hours

- a) Where the By-Law Officer works more than the standard hours of work over a period of twenty-eight (28) calendar days, they shall be entitled to one compensatory hour off, with pay, for each extra hour worked (herein called "compensatory hour"). The By-Law Officer must make every reasonable effort to schedule their work hours to minimize extra hours worked.
- b) Compensatory hours must be taken at a time mutually agreeable to both the By-Law Officer and the Employer and they must be used in the same fiscal year in which they are earned. Where the By-Law Officer has applied to take earned compensatory hours and the employer denies the leave requested the compensatory hours applied for will be paid to the By-law Officer as follows, for each day:
 - (i) time and one half for the first four hours applied for, and;
 - (ii) double time for all hours applied for in excess of four hours.
- c) When applying to take compensatory hours the By-Law Officer shall endeavour to ensure that such time will not negatively affect operational requirements.
- d) The By-Law Officer shall be entitled to carry forward compensatory hours up to fifteen (15) times the standard daily hours of work from one fiscal year to the next.
- e) At the end of each fiscal year all compensatory hours over fifteen (15) times the standard daily hours of work shall be liquidated in cash at the normal hourly rate of pay.
- f) The By-Law Officer shall provide the Senior Administrative Officer, not less than once every two (2) weeks with details of all compensatory hours worked.
- g) It is understood that this agreement is not intended to be used on an "ad hoc basis" to meet operational requirements or to avoid the payment of over-time to the By-Law Officer.

4) Application of Collective Agreement

The Parties acknowledge and agree that all terms and provisions of the Collective Agreement between the Employer and the Union apply, except as they are modified by the terms of this Memorandum.

5) Enforcement

This Memorandum forms part of the Collective Agreement and shall be enforceable under the terms of the Collective Agreement between the Employer and the Union, the laws of the Northwest Territories and applicable Federal laws.
